From Curtis Colgan

I have worked in the glass and screen industry for about 38 years. I started as a production glazier in 1978 and for the last 16 years have worked as the Sacramento branch manager for Western States Glass. My wife, two dogs, and I have relocated to Tucson, where my wife was born and raised. We have five grown children and two grandsons. I enjoy rifle target shooting and working on home improvement projects.
